INTERN INFORMATION

Issued Date: 23 July 2026
Student ID: IGO-0201347
Candidate Name: Mahnoor Yasir

Dear Mahnoor Yasir,

Congratulations! We are delighted to formally offer you a C Programming Internship at InternGrow. Your unique potential has been recognized, and we are confident that this Eight-week immersive program will be a pivotal step in your career journey. This program is scheduled from 1st August To 1st October 2026.

As an InternGrow intern, you will not only build upon your technical skills but also learn to apply them in real-world scenarios through the Learn • Build • Grow framework. Your primary domain will be C Programming, where you will engage in challenging projects and receive mentorship. By accepting this offer, you commit to performing all allocated work to the best of your ability and adhering to our lawful directions.

We look forward to your arrival and to a mutually rewarding association that will equip you with valuable skills. Wishing you a truly meaningful and rewarding internship experience.
